

CASE STUDY

Grimaldi Yeung Law Group LLP Boosts Hiring Efficiency with ExtensisHR's Targeted Recruiting Support

Company: Grimaldi Yeung Law Group LLP

Industry: Legal Services

Company Size: 20+ employees

Location: Brooklyn, New York and Manhattan, New York

CHALLENGE: Finding the right support staff amid growth

As Grimaldi Yeung Law Group LLP expanded its legal services, the firm faced growing demands for reliable and skilled support staff. Traditional recruiting methods like online job boards and local newspaper ads were no longer producing the quality or volume of candidates needed to keep pace with the firm's growth.

“Recruiting the right support staff to meet our firm’s growing needs was becoming a real challenge,” shared Angela Choy, Office Administrator.

SOLUTION:Strategic recruiting from ExtensisHR

To address this challenge, the firm partnered with ExtensisHR, leveraging its PEO solution to gain access to a more targeted approach to hiring. ExtensisHR's recruiting team delivered a curated pool of candidates that aligned with the firm's specific needs and culture, saving internal teams from the time-consuming process of screening unqualified applicants.

With weekly check-in meetings, pre-interview coaching, and practical hiring tips, the firm's administrative team was able to run more focused, efficient interviews and make better-informed hiring decisions.

RESULTS:*Less time hiring and a better process for a busy team

The impact of ExtensisHR's recruiting support was immediate and measurable:

Reduced recruitment time and effort

Improved quality of candidates

Better alignment with firm culture and needs

Increased morale and overall workplace positivity

“The service made a real difference for our administrative team by easing their workload and reducing the stress involved in managing recruitment,” said Angela. “It also helped us bring in candidates who fit well with our office environment, which improved team morale and overall job satisfaction.”

CONCLUSION:

A recruitment experience that stands out

For Grimaldi Yeung Law Group LLP, ExtensisHR delivered more than just candidates: it delivered peace of mind, improved hiring outcomes, and an HR partner invested in the firm's long-term success.

“We had an amazing recruitment experience thanks to Barbara! She was incredibly supportive, communicative, and made the entire process smooth, professional, and stress-free!” added Natalie Babb, Assistant Office Administrator.

Hiring support built into our PEO partnership

Finding the right talent doesn't have to be costly or time-consuming. With ExtensisHR, law firms like Grimaldi Yeung Law Group LLP and other growing businesses benefit from expert recruiting support included as part of our PEO solution—no added fees, no outside agencies.

From sourcing and screening to managing candidates and providing interview prep, ExtensisHR streamlines the entire hiring process. That means better-fit hires, less pressure on internal teams, and more time to focus on serving clients.

ExtensisHR

www.extensishr.com | 888-473-6396